

I love my XM Radio! I live in a rural area and only receive a couple of radio stations I don't like and the signal is poor. XM gives me the alternative to many stations for listening pleasure and provides me with important information I would otherwise not get. Plus, I travel to different states and XM keeps me informed along the way.